Once you leave the Miami airport, you're only 90 minutes from Paradise! Key Largo is part of the Florida Keys tropical coral archipelago with palm trees, sandy beaches and shipwrecks. A few miles offshore lies the only living coral barrier reef in the continental United States and the third largest barrier reef in the world.

The Molasses Reef, one of the most popular reefs in the Upper Keys, is known for its clear water, many fish and numerous boulder corals. Caves and ledges shelter lobsters, moray eels, parrotfish, angelfish, filefish, turtles, rays and nurse sharks.

Key Largo is also the beginning of the Florida Keys Shipwreck Trail. Here you'll find the Landing Ship Dock, the USS Spiegel Grove, and two US Coast Guard Cutters, the Duane and the Bib, which were sunk in the eighties.

Rainbow Reef Dive Center is conveniently located next to the hotel, the Key West Inn. Each condo has a full kitchen and a porch or balcony for relaxing and enjoying the seaside atmosphere.

Key Largo will impress you with its excellent diving, beautiful sunsets and pleasant atmosphere!
